WAYNE CALVERT JOINS NASHVILLE BANK & TRUST

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct 27th, 2008 – Wayne Calvert has joined Nashville Bank & Trust as senior vice president and portfolio manager bank officials announced today.

“With more than 40 years of experience in managing client investments, Wayne is uniquely equipped to help our clients during these challenging times.” said Derrick Jones, Managing Director of Wealth Management Services.

A Chartered Financial Analyst, Calvert comes to Nashville Bank & Trust after retiring from SunTrust Bank. Before his 13 years with SunTrust, Calvert managed portfolios at First American for 28 years. Wayne is a graduate of Vanderbilt University with a Bachelors degree in Business Administration. While in college, Wayne played for the Commodore basketball team from 1962 to 1966.

“We strive to provide our clients with access to the top financial professionals in the marketplace,” said Don Thurmond, NBT chairman. “Wayne will make an outstanding addition to our team.”

A full-service bank, Nashville Bank and Trust Company, provides private banking, wealth management and trust services. Personal, expert service is the bank’s hallmark. Customers benefit from direct contact with senior-level, experienced bank executives who have decision-making authority and a real understanding of the local community and the client’s relationship with the bank. The bank’s name is emblematic of its commitment to the traditions of exceptional service that were once the norm at Nashville banks. It has re-established the name and the tradition of the original Nashville Bank & Trust Co., which was founded in 1889 and was an integral part of Nashville’s financial landscape for nearly 80 years.
