Jones joins Nashville Bank & Trust

Derrick A. Jones will oversee wealth management services as managing partner for trust and investments with Nashville Bank & Trust Co.

Jones joined the startup bank from SunTrust Bank, where he was a senior vice president and manager of the trust and estate administration teams.

JONES

The hiring reunites him with his mentor Don Thurmond, a former SunTrust executive who is chief executive of Nashville Bank & Trust.

Jones has a bachelor's degree from St. Leo College, a law degree from the University of Alabama and served six years in the U.S. Navy. He also has professional designations such as certified financial planner.

Jones and his family have lived in Brentwood for almost two years.

Nashville Bank & Trust is half way toward its goal of raising $20 million of startup capital.
