Love joins start-up Nashville Bank & Trust

Patricia A. Love is senior vice president and portfolio manager in wealth management services at Nashville Bank & Trust Co. The start-up bank has tentatively scheduled its grand opening for late September.

LOVE

A certified financial analyst Love joined from SunTrust Bank in Nashville where she had served as senior vice president for personal asset management since 1996.

Before that role, she was vice president in the fixed income department of STI Capital Management, another SunTrust subsidiary, in Orlando.

Love has a bachelor's degree in business administration from Sam Houston State University. She is a member of the Nashville Society of Financial Analysts, a past treasurer of the Middle Tennessee Planned Giving Council and a member of Two Rivers Church.
